

OSWEGO COUNTY PUBLIC DEFENDER

The Oswego County Public Defender's Office has an immediate opening for a Public Defender to provide representation for indigent persons in need of legal services within the County. The Public Defender will counsel and represent defendants at every stage of legal proceedings related to criminal and Family Court cases. This is a new position, so the Public Defender will be responsible for the initial development, and ongoing management and operation of the Public Defender's Office.

Qualifications: Graduation from an American Bar Association accredited law school, admission to the New York State Bar, and ten (10) years of experience, or its part-time equivalent, in the practice of criminal law and/or in Family Court, at least three (3) years of which shall have involved trial practice.

Special Requirements: The Public Defender shall hold no other public or political office, shall devote working full-time to the County and shall be a resident of the County of Oswego during the term of office.

Salary negotiable and commensurate with experience and qualifications. Competitive benefits package included.

To Apply: Application review will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled. Please visit our website to complete an online application or submit a paper application to the address below. Please include a letter of interest and resume with your application.
