EXAMINATION DATE:	Saturday, November 9, 2024
LAST FILING DATE:	Wednesday, October 2, 2024 (Applications will NOT be accepted after this date)
EXAM FEE:	Exam Fee Waived

PAY RATE: $29.68 per hour. Promoted County employees will receive a salary adjustment per the County of Oswego Office Personnel Unit Agreement.

JOB DESCRIPTION: This professional position involves responsibility for overseeing and coordinating vocational program activities and directing professional work related to programs in Department of Social Services, Employment and Training division as well as the Department of Workforce Development. The incumbent is responsible for developing comprehensive plans, directing activities to meet goals, and implementing a variety of program components. This position differs from Employment Specialist in that it is a supervisory position involving the formulation, coordination, and administration of segments of numerous employment and training programs. Although work is performed under general supervision, individual is expected to exercise independent judgment. Supervision is exercised over professional and various support personnel. The incumbent does related duties as required.

RESIDENCY REQUIREMENTS: There are no residency requirements for this exam, however, preference in appointment may be given to legal residents of Oswego County.

VACANCIES: A promotional examination for this title will be held at the same time as the open-competitive exam. The list resulting from the promotional exam will be certified prior to the open-competitive list when filling vacancies.

PROMOTIONAL QUALIFICATIONS: Candidates must have six (6) months of permanent, continuous, competitive class, civil service status as an Employment Specialist in the Oswego County Department of Social Services or Department of Workforce Development immediately preceding the date of the exam. Preference in appointment will be given to employees in the department where the vacancy occurs.

SENIORITY CREDITS: Rating of seniority is based on the length of permanent, continuous, classified civil service status up to a maximum of twenty years. Seniority credits of 0.2 per year will be added to an eligible score.

OPEN-COMPETITIVE MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:
Education, specialized background, training and experience.

A. Possession of a bachelor's degree, or higher, in public administration, economics, social science, communications, or a closely related field and two (2) years of experience as a counselor, caseworker, employment interviewer, job analyst, or in another closely related position; OR

B. Possession of a bachelor's degree and three (3) years of the above noted experience; OR

C. An equivalent combination of training and experience as defined by the limits of "A," and "B," above.

Social Science includes anthropology, criminal justice, public justice, economics, geography, history, political science, psychology, and sociology.

NOTE: Your degree or credit hours must have been awarded by a college or university accredited by a regional, national, or specialized agency recognized as an accrediting agency by the U.S. Department of Education/U.S. Secretary of Education. If your degree or credit hours were awarded by an educational institution outside the United States and its territories, you must provide independent verification of equivalency. You may contact the Human Resources Department for a list of acceptable companies who provide this service. You must pay the required evaluation fee.

NOTE: Unless otherwise noted, experience credited towards meeting the minimum qualifications must be paid work experience. Volunteer experience will only be credited if specified on the exam announcement.

SPECIAL REQUIREMENT: Possession of a valid New York State driver's license appropriate to the vehicles operated or otherwise demonstrate their ability to meet the transportation needs of the position.

SCOPE OF THE WRITTEN EXAM: A written test designed to evaluate knowledge, skills and /or abilities in the following areas:

Ensuring effective inter/intra agency communications: These questions test for understanding of techniques for interacting effectively with individuals and agencies, to educate and inform them about topics of concern, to clarify agency programs or policies, to negotiate conflicts or resolve complaints, and to represent one's agency or program in a manner in keeping with good public relations practices. Questions may also cover interacting with the staff of one's own agency and/or that of other agencies in cooperative efforts of public outreach or service.

Preparing written material: These questions test for the ability to present information clearly and accurately, and to organize paragraphs logically and comprehensibly. For some questions, you will be given information in two or three sentences followed by four restatements of the information. You must then choose the best version. For other questions, you will be given paragraphs with their sentences out of order. You must then choose, from four suggestions, the best order for the sentences.

Understanding and interpreting written material: These questions test for the ability to understand and interpret written material. You will be presented with brief reading passages and will be asked questions about the passages. You should base your answers to the questions only on what is presented in the passages and not on what you may happen to know about the topic.

Administrative techniques and practices: These questions test for a knowledge of management techniques and practices used in directing or assisting in directing a program component or an organizational segment. Questions cover such areas as interpreting policies, making decisions based on the context of the position in the organization, coordinating programs or projects, communicating with employees or the public, planning employee training, and researching and evaluating areas of concern.

Supervision: These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices employed in planning, organizing, and controlling the activities of a work unit toward predetermined objectives. The concepts covered, usually in a situational question format, include such topics as assigning and reviewing work; evaluating performance; maintaining work standards; motivating and developing subordinates; implementing procedural change; increasing efficiency; and dealing with problems of absenteeism, morale, and discipline.

Use of a calculator is RECOMMENDED for this exam.

NO TEST GUIDE AVAILABLE – The New York State Department of Civil Service has not prepared a Test Guide for this examination. Test Guides published by the New York State Department of Civil Service are usually targeted to specific, entry-level titles. Test Guides are not provided for every examination. Candidates should focus their examination preparation upon the “Scope of the Written Exam” and other information listed on the examination announcement. Candidates may also find information contained in the publication “How to Take a Written Test” helpful in preparing for this examination.

The New York State Department of Civil Service is making a copy of this publication available on its Website at <https://www.cs.ny.gov/testing/testguides.cfm>. In addition, a copy of this publication is available upon request from the Oswego County Human Resources Department or may be downloaded from the web at <http://www.cs.ny.gov/pio/publications/howtotakeawrittentest.pdf>.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

1. Applications and additional information can be obtained at the Human Resources Department, Oswego County Office Building, 46 East Bridge Street, Oswego, New York 13126, or by calling (315) 349-8209, or on the web at <http://www.oswegocounty.com/humanresources>.
2. Applications postmarked after midnight of the Last Filing Date will not be considered eligible for this examination.
3. Falsification of any part of the "Application for Employment" will result in disqualification and possible legal action. Inquiries may be made as to character and ability and all statements made by candidates are subject to verification.
4. Applicants must answer every question on the application form. Incomplete applications will be disapproved.
5. Accepted candidates will be notified when and where to appear for exam. None will be admitted to the examination without the official admission notice. If an application is rejected, due notice will be sent. The department does not make formal acknowledgment of the receipt of an application.
6. If you have not received your notice to appear for the exam three days before the exam date, call (315) 349-8209.
7. If special arrangements for testing are required (i.e. religious observance, disability), submit written request describing your needs with the application form.
8. Unless otherwise noted, candidates are permitted to use quiet, hand-held, solar or battery powered calculators. Devices with typewriter keyboards, Spell Checkers, Personal Digital Assistants, Address Books, Language Translators, Dictionaries, or any similar devices are prohibited.
9. Active service members, veterans or disabled veterans desiring to claim additional credit may submit an "Application for Veteran's Credit" prior to the establishment of the eligible list. Forms are available upon request at the Human Resources Department.
10. Military Service members on active duty on the exam date may request a military makeup exam by calling (315) 349-8209. Members on active duty or discharged during the exam filing period may apply for the exam up to ten days before the exam date.
11. Per Section 85-a of the Civil Service Law, children of firefighters and police officers killed in the line of duty are entitled to receive ten additional credits on an exam which may result in an original appointment in the municipality where the deceased parent served. Candidates eligible for additional credit should indicate this on their exam application.
12. Candidates who fail the examination, or who fail to appear for the examination as scheduled, will be eliminated from further consideration.
13. Under specific circumstances an alternate test date may be arranged in accordance with established policy. Your request and verifiable documentation should be submitted at least one week prior to the test date or in case of an emergency no later than 4:00 p.m. on the next business day following the test.
14. This examination is being prepared and rated by the New York State Department of Civil Service in accordance with Section 23-2 of the Civil Service Law. The provisions of the New York State Civil Service Rules and Regulations dealing with the rating of exams will apply to this examination.
15. Unless otherwise specified, the final rank order of the eligible list established as a result of the exam will be determined on the basis of the scores received on the written test, plus veterans and seniority credits where appropriate.
16. The eligible list will remain in force for at least one (1) year and may be extended by the Director of Human Resources for a maximum of four (4) years. Changing conditions may make it necessary to certify future vacancies at higher or lower salaries than those announced.
17. Special Requirement for Appointment in School Districts and CITI: Per Chapter 180 of the Laws of 2000, and by Regulations of the Commissioner of Education, to be employed in a position designated by a school district or CITI as involving direct contact with students, a clearance for employment from the State Education Department is required.
18. In accordance with the Child Abuse Prevention Act of 1985, candidates for appointment to Oswego County government positions which involve regular and substantial contact with children will be required to complete a State Central Register of Child Abuse and Maltreatment clearance form. Failure to complete this form may result in decertification of your name from this eligible list for appointments in Oswego County.
19. Applicants may be required to undergo a State and national criminal history background investigation, which will include a fingerprint check, to determine suitability for appointment. Failure to meet the standards for the background investigation may result in disqualification.
